MOCA Hires William Robson, P.E. as Southeast Regional Manager

Newton, MA – It is with great pleasure that the firm has hired William “Bill” Robson, P.E. as Southeast Regional Manager. Bill will lead our program lifecycle management services in support of clients throughout the region.

Bill is a proven construction management executive with 35 years of experience managing construction programs for federal government agencies with the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers (USACE) throughout the Southeast region. Most recently, Bill was the BRAC Area Engineer for Norfolk District, responsible for the completion of the $1.2 billion BRAC construction program on Fort Lee, Virginia. The Fort Lee BRAC program is being completed through 34 contracts using both design-build and design-bid-build approaches.

Bill is a registered professional engineer in Virginia. He’s been awarded numerous distinctions including the Bronze Order of the De Fleury Medal in 2006 and 2010, and the Superior Civilian Service Award in January 2010. He has a bachelor’s degree in civil engineering from the Virginia Military Institute.

"Bill is a proven leader who achieved on-time and on-schedule performance managing the complex Fort Lee BRAC program. It is an honor to have him join our team and help our clients throughout the Southeast Region," says Mark McFadden, MOCA’s Vice President of Client Services.

Bill can be reached at our Richmond Office:
