Hugh L. Rice Joins MOCA Board of Directors

NEWTON, Mass. – Dec. 30, 2011 – MOCA Systems (MOCA) is pleased to announce the addition of Hugh L. Rice to its Board of Directors, joining the current five-member board. He is a recognized thought leader in the AEC industry, with 39 years of experience providing strategic advice on mergers and acquisitions, transition planning, stock valuations, and capital services. Mr. Rice has been with FMI Corporation throughout his career, joining the firm in 1972 and opening the Denver office in 1979. He launched the firm's Mergers and Acquisitions Group, now FMI Capital Advisors, Inc., where he served as chief executive officer until 2003 and chairman until 2011. Mr. Rice holds a master's in business administration from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and a bachelor's in electrical engineering from the Georgia Institute of Technology. We are looking forward to benefiting from Mr. Rice's expertise and strategic insight during his tenure on our board.
