MOCA Hires Don Koslowsky as Honolulu Regional Manager

Newton, MA – It is with great pleasure that the firm has hired Don Koslowsky as Honolulu Regional Manager. Don will be overseeing MOCA's Honolulu Region, leading existing team members and continuing the office's growth throughout the Pacific Region.

Don is an experienced program and construction manager with over 20 years experience in the construction industry and 15 years in Hawaii. He has been responsible for management and quality assurance of construction contracts for DoD and commercial clients with particular focus in providing cost and schedule construction management services. Prior to joining MOCA and when employed in Honolulu, Don worked for Actus Lend Lease and Armstrong Builders. Don graduated from Colorado State University with a degree in Construction Management.

David Wong, PE, PMP, CCE hands over the Honolulu Region to Don as David transitions back to the Boston area with his family. "We are extremely pleased to welcome Don Koslowsky to our impressive team in Honolulu," says David Wong. "His addition to the Honolulu office represents MOCA's strong commitment to this geographic market and our local clients."
